LEADERSHIP MASTERY PROGRAM

October 12 -14, 2007

The Westin Resort & Spa • Whistler, British Columbia, Canada

BUSINESS AND WORLD RENOWNED LEADERS LIVE AND IN PERSON AT THE LEADERSHIP MASTERY PROGRAM

In the fall of 2007, The Power Within will host an extraordinary event which will change your personal and professional life forever. The long awaited Power Within Leadership Mastery Program has been set for October 12-14th 2007 at The Westin Resort in Whistler, British Columbia, Canada. Top CEO's, managers and entrepreneurs from around the world will gather together for two and a half days to participate in this world class event. The Power Within has educated, entertained and thrilled audiences across Canada and around the world with our one day programs. Through feedback from our audiences we have compiled the most impressive lineup ever for our multi-day Whistler program. Conference attendees will enjoy addresses from the greatest visionaries and leaders today on subjects that will define the future of business and our world. The Leadership Mastery Program is a forum for top executives, community leaders and high achievers, to not only listen to these world class leaders, but to network with like minded peers and the conference speakers themselves. Imagine the lifelong contacts and ideas generated from over two days of networking with the most respected and distinguished experts in the areas of business, leadership, finance and personal development. Power Within events have empowered Canadians for much of the last decade and now is your opportunity to participate in this highly anticipated event.

“ Phenomenal, life changing experience that triggered lots of questions. A must attend for every individual. ”

ANTHONY ROBBINS

World Authority on leadership psychology, International best-selling author, strategic advisor to world leaders.

Since fathering the life coaching industry three decades ago, Anthony Robbins has directly impacted the lives of more than 50 million people from 80 nations with his work in leadership psychology, organizational turnaround, and peak performance. He has advised leaders from every walk of life—from political leaders, Fortune 500 CEOs, and world-class athletes and entertainers to teachers, parents, and inner-city youth. Robbins has addressed such distinguished audiences as the World Economic Forum, British Parliament, and the Harvard Business School. He has been honored by American Express as one of the Top Six Business Leaders in the World to coach its entrepreneurial clients and Accenture as one of the Top 50 Business Intellectuals in the World.

PATRICK LENCIONI

Author of the best-seller “The Five Dysfunctions of a Team”.

Patrick Lencioni is founder and president of The Table Group Inc., a management consulting firm focused on executive team-development and organizational health. He has authored five business books, including The Five Dysfunctions of a Team, which continues gracing the best-seller lists of The New York Times, BusinessWeek, Wall Street Journal, and USA Today. His other books include, Overcoming the Five Dysfunctions of a Team: A Field Guide, Death by Meeting, The Four Obsessions of an Extraordinary Executive and The Five Temptations of a CEO. Lencioni’s work is also featured in publications such as Fast Company Inc. magazine and The Harvard Business Review. In addition to this, Lencioni also consults with executives and world class organizations such as New York Life, Microsoft, Southwest Airlines, Charles Schwab and FedEx, to name a few.

DR. LAURA D'ANDREA TYSON

Former National Economic Advisor to President Clinton and First Female Chairman of White House Council of Economic Advisors.

As former National Economic Advisor to President Clinton in his first term and Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors, Dr. Laura D’Andrea Tyson has earned a reputation as an authority on U.S. economic competitiveness, global markets and high-tech industry. BusinessWeek magazine noted the addition of Tyson to the White House, claiming the administration gained an “articulate economist” who would be a “frontline economic spokesperson” for the Clinton economic agenda. As the nation’s top economic advisor, Dr. Tyson managed all economic policy making throughout the executive branch. Her expertise has also made its way into an acclaimed book, Who’s Bashing Whom? Trade Conflict in High Technology Industries and regularly contributes to The Washington Post and The New York Times on domestic and economic policy matters.

MALCOLM GLADWELL

Author of the New York Times best-seller “Blink” and “The Tipping Point”.

In 2005, Time Magazine named Malcolm one of its 100 Most Influential People. He is the author of two New York Times #1 best-sellers. With his first book, Malcolm embedded the concept of The Tipping Point in our everyday vocabulary and gave organizations new tools for understanding how and why change happens and how to create positive epidemics of ideas and behavior. In Blink, he analyzes first impressions—the judgments we make unconsciously and instinctively—and he explores how we can master this important aspect of successful decision-making. He is currently a staff writer for The New Yorker magazine. His editor describes his work as a new genre of story, an idea-driven narrative that’s focused on the everyday and combines research with material that’s more personal, social and historical. He was previously a reporter for The Washington Post.

DAN GILBERT

Author of the National best-seller “Stumbling on Happiness.” and Professor of Psychology at Harvard University

Daniel Gilbert is a Professor of Psychology at Harvard University. His research with Tim Wilson on "affective forecasting" investigates how well people can make predictions about the emotional impact of future events. Dan has won numerous awards for his teaching and research—from the Guggenheim Fellowship to the American Psychological Association's Distinguished Scientific Award for an Early Career Contribution to Psychology. However, he says that his greatest accomplishment is that he appears just before Dizzie Gillespie on the list of Most Famous High School Dropouts. Dan's research has been covered by The New York Times magazine, Forbes, Money, CNN, U.S. News & World Report, The New Yorker, Scientific American, Oprah Magazine, Psychology Today, and many others.

ARIANNA HUFFINGTON

Co-founder and Editor of The Huffington Post. Political Commentator, Author and Oprah’s 50 Most Powerful Women.

One of the best-known commentators in the United States, Arianna Huffington is co-founder and editor-in-chief of the Huffington Post, a news information and blog site. She is also co-host of “Left, Right and Center”, a popular political discussion show on National Public Radio in the United States. She is a leading critic on matters of political and social interest in the United States, having appeared on numerous television discussion shows, such as “Oprah”, “Larry King Live”, “The O’Reilly Factor”, and “Inside Politics”. In addition, she serves on several boards and organizations that deal with social problems, including “A Place Called Home”, which works with at-risk children in South Central Los Angeles. In recognition of her role in shaping public opinion, Time Magazine named her one of the World’s 100 Most Influential People.

RAM CHARAN

Author of "Know How" and a highly acclaimed business advisor, speaker and author who has coached some of the world's most successful CEOs.

As a graduate of the Harvard Business School, Ram Charan is no stranger to success. He is a well-known author whose books include, Execution, written with Larry Bossidy, former CEO of Honeywell. The book reached number one on the Wall Street Journal list and has remained on the New York Times best-seller list for over fifty weeks. Charan's other books include, What the CEO Wants You To Know, Boards At Work and Every Business Is a Growth Business. His dedication goes so far as to tailor his books for specific client companies such as Gateway, Ford and EDS. He has contributed articles for the Harvard Business Review, Fortune, Time and Information Week. Currently, Charan is the director of Austin Industries and The Six Sigma Academy.

DARCY REZAC

Chief engagement officer, The Vancouver Board of Trade and Author of Work the Pond! on The Art of Engaged Leadership.

Darcy Rezac writes, speaks and consults on public policy, social capital, leadership and networking and corporate and employee engagement. He is the best-selling author of, Work the Pond!, which features his trademarked ethos of positive networking. The book was dubbed "The Connector's Handbook" by Town & Country magazine and The Financial Post credits Rezac with "taking networking to a new level" in its review. Rezac is the director of B.C. Bearing Engineers Ltd., The Pacific Basin Economic Council (Hong Kong) and The Vancouver Board of Trade. His client list of 200 includes: HSBC Bank (Hong Kong, Canada, UK), The International Chamber of Commerce, US Chamber of Commerce, US Government, Federal Executive Board Seattle, Gillette (Geneva), RBC Financial Group and many more.

PETER GUBER

Founder & Chairman of Mandalay Entertainment and former CEO of Sony Entertainment.

Founder and Chairman of the visionary multimedia venture, Mandalay Entertainment, Peter Guber is perhaps the most successful executive in the entertainment industry. As a producer, his films, including Rain Man, The Color Purple and Batman, have earned over three billion dollars worldwide and garnered more than 50 Oscar nominations. Former Chairman and CEO of Sony Pictures Entertainment, he revitalized the troubled company and more than doubled its market share and annual revenue.

FRANK ABAGNALE

Catch Me if You Can

Frank W. Abagnale will present an entertaining discussion of his life. By the age of 21, he had impersonated an international airline pilot, a pediatrician, a stockbroker, a college professor, and even an assistant attorney general, all while cashing $2.5 million dollars in forged checks. He will take you on an emotional roller coaster ride as he discusses his life and what's really important in life. His amazing story was made into a major motion picture directed by Steven Spielberg starring Leonardo DiCaprio, Tom Hanks, Christopher Walken, Martin Sheen, James Brolin, and Jennifer Garner.
